

WASHINGTON, D. C., SUNDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 3, 1912.

Special No ice
See our large ad on Pianola
Player-Pianos on Page 9, Main
Section of today's issue of this paper.

Real Entertainment for the Home

You will never be at a loss how to spend an enjoyable evening at home, or how to entertain your friends when they call, if you own one of these

Four New Style VICTOR VICTROLAS

The Prices Are
$75, $100, $150 & $200

These new models are the very latest achievement in talking machines—they are winning more fame every day for the wonderful Victor Victrolas—the greatest entertainers of the age.

Other regular model Victor Talking Machines at $15, $25, $40 & $50

Free demonstrations every day.
Our immense library includes all the latest records as soon as they appear.

O. J. De Moll Emmons S. Smith
O. J. De Moll & Co.
Steinway and Weber Pianolas
Together With Complete Aeolian Line of Pianola
Player - Pianos.
12th and G Streets N.W.

There's Distinctiveness of Fashion and High Gradeness in Rich's
Shoes for Women at $4

You'll not only marvel at the variety, but at the high quality and the distinctiveness of Rich's shoes for women at $4. Shown in patent leather, black Russia and tan Russia in the very newest effects.

If $4 is your limit, you surely cannot do better — anywhere!

Ten-one F St. Corner Tenth.

Rich's

Stylish Millinery
Special Sale at
$3.95, $5.00 & $7.50

That little something in the hat or trimming which imparts loveliness is present in every piece of millinery work in these special designs. Mme. Bramlett's special touch is dominant, and, as usual, at prices unheard of.

Furs Remodeled
Mme. Bramlett
616 13th St. N.W.

Auman and Werkmeister,
FURRIERS,
1516 H St. N.W.

Are showing, at attractive prices, an unusually interesting collection of Coats, Muffs and Neckpieces, in selected

FURS

Special orders and remodeling executed on short notice.

Phone Main 7531.

The Wagon You Want
Is here and at the price you want to pay. We show the largest and best line of Delivery Wagons.
T. E. Young, Carriage Repository,
504-406 F. ave. N.W.

WITH each new arrival or each new announcement the impression is strengthened that the coming winter will be quite a gay one, and the glamour which is so irresistible where youth is concerned has already begun to assert itself. Neither the buds nor the brides are giving much thought to the possibilities of the political whirlwind and its effect on the resident official body. Fashions in hospitality have changed here as they have everywhere else and year by year are affected less and less by the doings of the administrative families. The White House program under Mrs. Taft has not only kept the familiar routine as of old, but has enlarged the methods and increased the events, so that more persons have been welcomed there than was ever thought possible heretofore.

Until ill health or mourning bereavement prevented the home of the late Vice President Sherman was frequently in the public mind as a center where both official and social society was delightfully in evidence. With few exceptions the other social rallies of the past four years have been omitted from the plans of the cabinet household, and hospitality such as would be extended any where their heads were in residence has become the custom. But the presentation of debutantes in all the pleasant ways of the past is still going on with a will, and the methods most generally in vogue, with dinners and dances for one's special circle when a more elaborate program is feasible.

Washington's large colony of rich widows is being daily augmented by a fresh arrival, and already outnumbers that of any other city in the country. The capital is no longer simply an official social center, but the rendezvous of the rich from all quarters of the country, and never before have so many wealthy widows honored it with a winter residence. Mrs. Marshall Field of Chicago, probably the wealthiest, has her sumptuous Italian mansion on 16th street almost ready for occupancy, and will probably remain as queen of the widows. Closely following her will be another semi-Chicago woman, Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant, widow of Gen. Grant, and sister of Mrs. Potter Palmer of Chicago, who will occupy the house on New Hampshire avenue which she recently bought. Two other rich Chicago widows are numbered in this charming coterie, Mrs. Robert Patterson and her beautiful daughter, Countess Joseph G. Sybil. The latter is one of the most attractive and accomplished women in the smart set of the capital, and as gentle and lovable as she is handsome.

Mrs. Henry F. Dimock of New York is one of the most valued recent acquisitions, and with her daughter, Mrs. Dimock Hutchinson, will reign in the same house on I street which her brother, Mr. Whitney, occupied when Secretary of the Navy under Cleveland. If rumor is correct Mrs. Dimock will have as guests during the coming season Mrs. Grover Cleveland and her debutante daughter, Miss Esther Cleveland, who will be introduced in New York November 18. They will also visit Mrs. Rockwood Hoar and her daughter, Miss Frances Hoar, who will be a debutante of the season. Mrs. Taft's sister, Mrs. Thomas K. Laughlin, who will spend the winter in Washington, is one of the most attractive women of the season, and has been at the White House on many occasions during the illness of Mrs. Taft. Mrs. Helen Morton will also be of the illustrious number, as she will make her winter home here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi P. Morton. The Countess of Yorkmouth, now plain Mrs. Copley Thaw, bought the home of the late Chief Justice Fuller last winter, and will again be in Washington society. In the colony of rich widows are also Mrs. Levi Z. Leiter, Mrs. Mary Scott Townsend, Mrs. Hope Slater, Mrs. Stephen E. Elkins, Mrs. Robert Hitt, Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, Mrs. Mark Hanna, Mrs. Henry C. Corbin, formerly Miss Edythe Patton, and Madame Christian Hauge, whose husband was minister from Norway; Mrs. Charles H. Smith, formerly Mrs. Charles Broughton Wood, Mrs. Phil Sheridan, Mrs. Frederic R. Coudert, Mrs. Nicholas Anderson, Mrs. Clarence Moore, Mrs. Charles A. Munn, Mrs. Thomas F. Bayard, Mrs. Harriet Blaine Beale, Mrs. James McMillan and Mrs. B. H. Warder, almost all of whom have fortunes reaching or exceeding the million-dollar mark. Mrs. William P. Draper, who by the will of her husband is one of the wealthiest of the widow colony, will share honors with her daughter, Miss Marguerite Draper.

Mrs. Townsend has been here off and on for several weeks, and has had Mrs. Peter Goelet Gerry with her at intervals also. Mrs. Gerry, who is running for Congress, has had to give much of his time to campaigning, or else he and Mrs. Gerry would have had a merry autumn at their place at The Plains, Va., where country life offers to them more fascinations than the city's call.

Mrs. L. Z. Leiter, who is ill at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Col. and Mrs. Colin Campbell in England, is slowly recovering, and will probably be able to come to her home here before Christmas. The death of Mrs. Leiter's sister, Mrs. John H. Thompson of Chicago, at her summer place at Manchester, Vt., late in the summer, was a great shock to her, and one which caused her sudden determination to go abroad. Mrs. Thompson was with Mrs. Leiter most of last season and received with her at the brilliant afternoon reception which she held in honor of the Red Cross delegates at her home on Dupont circle.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley are having another addition built to their already huge house, which is to face the Connecticut avenue side of the structure and which will practically cover all the former garden space. If the opening of the Bradley theater is not the end of the matter, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley were here most of last week, but have gone on to their North Carolina estate for the shooting before settling here for the winter.

The reconstruction going on in the Levi P. Morton house on Rhode island avenue is a general one, and the new house which is being built in its place will not be possible for this year and longer.

The Diplomats.

The most notable of the many changes to take place in the diplomatic corps are those at the Austrian embassy, where a new ambassador will be appointed, just before the New Year, to succeed Baron Henselmüller. The baron will not return to Washington.

Baroness Zwiadinek, wife of the new Austrian ambassador, will be the only woman in the otherwise bachelor staff of the embassy. She will not arrive here until late in the winter or early spring, hence the embassy will be without a woman chaperone until that time. Baron Zwiadinek succeeded Chevalier von Loewenthal as ambassador, and arrived in this country during the summer, going direct to Bar Harbor.

Konstantin von Maskevich, recently appointed first secretary of the Austrian embassy to succeed Count von Cernikow, and who landed in New York a week ago, has arrived in Washington to assume his duties. He is a bachelor, quite accomplished and experienced in diplomatic affairs from his connection with the foreign office of his own country. He has taken apartments at Rauscher's.

Baron Karl von Freudenthal, attaché of the Austrian embassy, has sailed for Europe on a three-month leave of absence.

The birthday of King Victor Emmanuel III has just been celebrated at the embassy yesterday. The ambassador and his family have not yet returned from Europe.

Mr. Giuseppe Catalano, the counselor, is acting charge of affairs. Mr. Auguste Rosso and Mr. Secotto of the embassy have both returned.

Mr. D. da Gama, the Brazilian ambassador, spent the summer in this country, and has again taken possession of his charming home on 16th street for the winter months. All of the members of the embassy staff have returned, with the exception of Mr. J. de Oliveira Murielly, the first secretary.

The Russian ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff spent several days at the embassy in New York. Mme. Bakmeteff is in gation and Mme. de Urcullo have taken an apartment at the Keneaw for the winter.

The minister of Peru and Mme. Peset have not returned to Washington, but are expected at an early date at the legation on K street.

The minister of Nicaragua, Dr. Castrolino, has returned to his apartment in Stoneleigh Court from a short trip to New York.

Recent Weddings.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Hicks and Lieut. Robert Frank Gross took place in Los Angeles, Cal., last Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hicks, on West Adams street. Representative and Mrs. John W. Dwight were present, as were other out-of-town guests. Mrs. Dwight is a sister of Mrs. Hicks, and it will be remembered that it was at the home of Mrs. Dwight that Miss Hicks made her formal debut so lately, and so it is whispered it was here also that Miss Hicks first met the

A DECEMBER DEBUTANTE

MISS LANETTE HINES SMITH,

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orlando H. Smith, who will be presented at an evening reception December 14 at Rauscher's.

deep mourning for her sister, Mrs. McLean, and there will probably be no formal entertaining at the embassy till after the holidays.

Mr. A. Sticherbath, counselor of the embassy, is still absent.

Baron de Wode, the military attaché, and his sister, Baroness Elizabeth de Bode, sailed recently for Europe.

The Japanese embassy is observing mourning for the late emperor.

The French ambassador and Mme. Jusserand have returned and are established at the embassy on 16th street.

The members of the embassy staff are nearly all back at their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest de la Rocca are at their residence on Columbia road, where they entertained informally at a luncheon one day last week.

During the absence of Viscountess Benoit d'Asy in Europe, Commander d'Asy has taken an apartment at Rauscher's.

Mr. de Sarriges, the newly appointed third secretary, will also be established at Rauscher's for the winter.

The German ambassador and Countess Benzon are back, interesting themselves in their home near Munich.

Mr. Hansel von Halmhausen, the counselor, is at last week to join Mme. Halmhausen in Germany. They will return about the 1st of December.

Members of the embassy are all back. Baron de Lerner, who arrived in the city last week, which extended to New Zealand and Australia. They left here in the spring, and while away visited many points of interest in the west.

The embassy staff have nearly all returned, with the exception of Mr. Alfred Michel, Innes, who is expected back shortly from a tour of the west.

The German ambassador and Countess Benzon are back, interesting themselves in their home near Munich.

Mr. Hansel von Halmhausen, the counselor, is at last week to join Mme. Halmhausen in Germany. They will return about the 1st of December.

Members of the embassy are all back. Baron de Lerner, who arrived in the city last week, which extended to New Zealand and Australia. They left here in the spring, and while away visited many points of interest in the west.

The embassy staff have nearly all returned, with the exception of Mr. Alfred Michel, Innes, who is expected back shortly from a tour of the west.

The German ambassador and Countess Benzon are back, interesting themselves in their home near Munich.

gallant young officer whom she has married.

Functions in honor of the bride were many and of elaborate character.

Cards have been received from Mrs. Angnette Hasbrouck announcing the marriage of her niece, Miss Renee Tolson, and Capt. William Thornton Davis of the Medical Corps, U. S. A. The wedding took place Saturday, September 28, at St. John's Church, in Vienna, Austria.

The young couple will sail next month for New York, and will establish their home in the city at 1627 18th street northwest. The bride went abroad last year, and later the news was received of her engagement to the popular army officer.

The chapel on the grounds of Airle, a relic of ante-bellum days on that North Carolina plantation, was the scene of the wedding last Thursday of Miss Sadie Green Jones and Mr. John Russell Pope, Jr., of New York.

The bride was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wigham of New York, and Mrs. Gordon Ivory satin with long court train trimmed with quantities of rare old point de France lace which hung well over the train. The bride wore a crown of white roses and lilies of the valley. The only jewelry worn was a string of pearls, one of her wedding gifts.

The bride was charmingly arrayed in a dress of pale pink chiffon with large picture hats of chiffon and brown fur, and they carried bouquets of roses.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Ewing and Lieut. Henry Lee Watson of the cavalry, U. S. A., took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beverly Ewing, on 16th street.

A double sentiment was given on the occasion by the fact that it was the bride's birthday, and the decorations were of white and pink.

The rooms were hung with the Stars and Stripes. Flats were loaned over the doorway, and the bride's bouquet was given to her by her father, Mr. Ewing.

An orchestra in the rear hall played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" as the bride entered with her father, Mr. Ewing. Lieut. Watson, with his best man, his brother Mr. Eugene Watson of New York, met her at the improvised altar, and the marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph D. Mitchell of the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist.

The bride, who is a beautiful young girl, wore a charming gown of white crepe charmeuse, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

An orchestra in the rear hall played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" as the bride entered with her father, Mr. Ewing. Lieut. Watson, with his best man, his brother Mr. Eugene Watson of New York, met her at the improvised altar, and the marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph D. Mitchell of the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist.

The bride, who is a beautiful young girl, wore a charming gown of white crepe charmeuse, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

An orchestra in the rear hall played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" as the bride entered with her father, Mr. Ewing. Lieut. Watson, with his best man, his brother Mr. Eugene Watson of New York, met her at the improvised altar, and the marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph D. Mitchell of the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist.

The bride, who is a beautiful young girl, wore a charming gown of white crepe charmeuse, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

An orchestra in the rear hall played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" as the bride entered with her father, Mr. Ewing. Lieut. Watson, with his best man, his brother Mr. Eugene Watson of New York, met her at the improvised altar, and the marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph D. Mitchell of the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist.

Philipsborn
THE OUTER GARMENT SHOP
608 TO 614 ELEVENTH STREET.

Complete Showing of Winter Models.

Women's and Misses' Tailored Suits, Gowns, Street Dresses, Separate Coats, Blouses and Millinery.

Besides showing the largest stocks and greatest varieties, our models are individual and exclusive, and adapted from the latest foreign importations.

Women who appreciate the better class of merchandise will be delighted with our moderate prices when style, fit and quality are considered.

Among them are many charming and new fabrics—imported novelties that are extremely scarce—such as velour-de-laine, eponge, two-tone velvet and corduroy, white chinchilla and brocades.

The millinery display is especially attractive; all hats are made in our own workrooms on the premises, insuring individuality and preventing duplication.

Suit Department.

Serge and Broadcloth Suits.....$19.75, $25.00
Velvet and Corduroy Suits.....$25.00, $40.00
Velour-de-laine and Eponge Suits.....$30.00, $45.00

Coat Department.

Chinchilla and Polo Cloth Coats.....$16.75, $25.00
Boucle and Broadcloth Coats.....$20.00, $30.00
Charmeuse and Brocade Wraps.....$30.00, $45.00
Velvet and Velour-de-laine Wraps.....$35.00, $55.00

Dress Department.

Serge and Eponge Dresses.....$12.50, $20.00
Velvet and Corduroy Dresses.....$20.00, $30.00
Charmeuse and Meteor Dresses.....$25.00, $35.00
Fancy Evening Dresses.....$35.00, $45.00

Waist Department.

Crepe and Charmeuse Waists.....$5.50, $7.50
Chiffon and Lace Waists.....$5.50, $8.50
Handmade French Waists.....$5.50, $9.00
Mannish Silk Shirts.....$3.00, $5.00

Fur Department.

Hudson Seal (dyed muskrat) Coats.....$150.00
Spotted Leopard Coats.....$150.00
French Dyed Baltic Seal Coats.....$75.00
Fur-trimmed Baltic Seal Coats.....$100.00
Natural Brown Pony Coats.....$75.00
Pointed Fox Sets (large).....$55.00

Miss
Billie Burke
Says:

"There is nothing more essential to a woman's success than her personal appearance. Her personal charm does more to command the respect and admiration than does the tendency on the part of some toward masculinity. This fact is proven by the rapid success of the suffrage movement by the women of California, as against the women of England. Only the sweetness and beauty of a woman combined with her superior wisdom and judgment makes her a power in our nation. I am always careful in selecting my toilet preparations as I am in rehearsing my roles. I use Madame du Four's Face Powder because it is the best."

Sold at all druggists and department stores. Also at Katie Dunn's Hairdressing Parlors.

Write for Madame du Four's "Beautician Booklet."

THE DU FOUR COMPANY
Room 200, Walter Building
1010 F Street

trimmed with lace and pearls and a white picture hat. She carried bride roses. After dinner the couple left for a Canadian trip. They will live in this city.

Miss Elizabeth Seaman Gilderale was married to Mr. Richard Charles McAuley of this city, at a home of the bride's nearest relative, Mrs. Mary West Platt, her niece, 215 Madison avenue, Flushing, New York, last Wednesday. Rev. A. M. Currie of the Presbyterian Church of Murray Hill officiated. The parlor in which the ceremony took place, was handsomely decorated with autumn leaves, ferns and white chrysanthemums. The ceremony was performed under a bridal arch of autumn leaves. The bride wore a gown of tulle brocade. The only attendant was Miss J. Platt, a nephew of the bride. The groom (Continued on Second Page)